

Travel Notes

Crowne Plaza Harrisburg, convention headquarters, is only four blocks from Pennsylvania's Capitol Complex. Harrisburg's picturesque waterfront and City Island are also within walking distance. The State House Restaurant in the Crowne Plaza sets a standard for area steakhouses.

Travel to Harrisburg is convenient, with highway, train, and air connections. For those traveling by car, the city is located along the Pennsylvania Turnpike, at the intersections of interstates I-81 from the southwest and northeast and I-83 from the Baltimore and located just a short walk or taxi ride from the Harrisburg Amtrak station. Several New York-Chicago trains stop at Harrisburg, and there is commuter service from Philadelphia, where travelers can change trains at the 30th Street Station from eastern corridor runs. Pennsylvania will be seasonably warm and OHS conventions are typically casual. We suggest that conventioners should remember that we are visiting many houses of worship where appropriate dress is appreciated by our hosts.
